Body Builders Meeting Minutes (6-12-22:

Present: Shirley Blattner, Gerry Burney, Monica Burney, Gayle Harris, Rense Miller

Opened in prayer

Old business:

Gerry gave the financial report.

Gayle shared that because of an uptick in COVIC cases, the women volunteers haven't been able to get into the jail on Saturday nights. She and Tony Huerta are taking the Virtual Chapels into the jail weekly.

The National Day of Prayer turnout was not as large as we had hoped for, but we had several pastors there and a few more people than last year. We need to invest in our own PA system. Gerry brought up about other community events: Memorial Day, 4th of July, etc. He suggested maybe he could put a seminar together to mark September 11 th .

Rense gave a report on the Family BBQ in Lakeport. Quite a few people involved. Ballet Emmaus did a great job. A dance workshop with this group is still in the works.

Monica shared about the success of the Community Yard Sale. Dave Poma was a huge help in transporting the items in his van. Gerry, Monica and Shirley sold the goods.

Gale shared that the Good News Bible Club will resume in the fall. They are still waiting approval to go on campus to Frank Zeek and Nokomis Schools.

Monica shared that Andrea Tarin from Crossroads has been asked to be the faculty advisor for a new Christian club at school. Monica suggested that we try to support this club and perhaps even partner with them on special events from time to time.

Monica continues to work on the next discipleship training seminar on Bible Study methods. Most likely it will take place in September.

Gayle was unable to go to the Prayer Walk as it conflicted with her commitment at Mountain View. Shirley manned the information table. Only several people from First Baptist participated. They prayed on site at the church.

On June 18 th the Burney's will host Gayle's friend Pastor Peter for a potluck BBQ. Gayle will host a potluck for him on the 19 th .

Monica talked about potential fundraisers/special events: Roger Huang (City Impact of SF), Art/Craft sale or Fashion show/Silent Auction, and the Annual Christmas Crafts Faire. Additionally, she talked about looking into doing a drive-in movie fundraiser through John Strangio has the equipment and helped the Lion's Club put on a profitable fundraiser last summer.

Next meeting dates is: July 10 th , at 3 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Monica Burney

Our “Our Mission is the Great Commission”

– cofounder, Ryan Ries

“As Whosoevers we will never stop believing in our young generation. It is this hope and love for them that will continue to inspire us to keep reaching them with compassion and truth”

- cofounder, Sonny Sandoval

OUR MISSION:

The Whosoevers’ mission is to deliver the message of the gospel to a generation searching for meaning, empowering them to realize their true purpose in life.

WHAT WE DO:

We are a movement of Whosoevers leading the way to reflect Christ in culture. Our generation today faces many more distractions and problems than ever before. Drug abuse, depression, broken families, self-harm and suicide are just a few of the issues they have to overcome. Our “Kill the Noise” tour reaches out to them with a life changing message of truth and hope.

Ryan Ries is co-founder of The Whosoevers movement, a nonprofit organization that empowers students at public schools, colleges, and universities around the world to make positive choices no matter their circumstances. Ryan teaches Bible studies at Calvary Chapel Golden Spring, and speaks to thousands of teens and adults at music festivals, concerts, skate parks, churches, juvenile detention centers, and rehabs each year. He produces films, organizes music festivals, and hosts a Saturday night radio talk show, The Ryan Ries Show. Ryan continues to work personally with musicians and action sports athletes. Ryan is married to Crystal, and they have triplet daughters and one son. They live in Southern California.
